

Concours d'Elegance: Day 3

FEBRUARY 21, 2016

The Boca Raton Concours d'Elegance Sunday Show

Wayne Carini, Grand Marshal Jay Quail, Chief Honorary Judge
Dr. Paul Sable, Chief Judge

PRESENTED BY

On Sunday, February 21st, 200 of the finest collector cars and motorcycles from around the country will gather on the show field at the famed Boca Raton Resort & Club. On display at this year's Concours will be an exquisite collection of Packards as well as CCCA Grand Classic®. The judging process will combine a point/percentage system, along with Modified French Rule evaluation criteria of the cars condition, authenticity/originality, and appeal in the following areas: the vehicle's exterior, its interior area, the engine area, and the overall presentation, visual impact and significance of the car. Jay Leno will present the Jay Leno Big Dog Award to his choice of motorcycle and automobile. A variety of manufacturers will be displaying vintage, antique, and classic automobiles. Plus, guests will have the opportunity to enjoy an assortment of gourmet food, wines and cocktails from 30 of South Florida's finest restaurants in the Concours d'Gourmet Pavilions.

Show set-up: 7:00am - 8:30am - Judging: 9:00am - 12:00pm

VIP Admission: 9:30am

General Admission: 10:00am

CLASSIC CAR CLUB
OF AMERICA

The Classic Car Club of America (CCCA) is about vintage automobiles and the pleasure of the sport. Since its beginning in 1952, the members of the CCCA have been dedicated to the collection, preservation and enjoyment of the world's finest cars. As in the beginning, Grand Classic Era® automobiles manufactured from 1915 to 1948 remain the primary focus of the club today. The CCCA has held many members only Grand Classic® car shows, enjoyed touring CARavans and published The Classic Car magazine plus other numerous publications since the Club's founding. Many Grand Classics® are often not open to the public.
